FYI: Catholic means “universal”. In the Nicene Creed, we speak of the church as being “one, holy, catholic and apostolic.” In so doing, we are not referring to any particular church or denomination (such as Roman Catholicism), but rather to all true believers in Jesus, in all places, throughout all of time.

THE HOLY COMMUNION

- ⊕ We invite all baptized Christians, regardless of denomination, to the Lord’s table for Holy Communion.
- ⊕ Please proceed forward as directed by the ushers, and then to the communion station on your side of the room.

- ⊕ After consuming the wafer and wine, please dispose of any cups in the white plastic receptacles.

- ⊕ We proclaim that Jesus Christ is present in the consecrated bread and wine in a real, yet mysterious way.

*The Nicene Creed is an ancient summary statement of the Christian faith. It reminds us of what we believe about God and His Church.

In it, we substitute the word "universal" in place of the traditional wording of "catholic". We do this to avoid any suggestion that we may be affiliated with the Roman Catholic Church.

The Creed teaches us that the Church Jesus established is: one (singular under His authority), holy because it is His), catholic or universal (because it includes all believers for all of time) and apostolic (because it continues the work of His first apostles..

SCRIPTURE READINGS FOR TODAY

The Collect (Summary Prayer) of the Day

O merciful Lord, grant to your faithful people pardon and peace, that we may be cleansed from all our sins and serve you with a quiet mind; through Jesus Christ our Lord, who lives and reigns with you and the Holy Spirit, one God, now and for ever. Amen.

New Testament Reading—1 Timothy 6:6-11; 17-19

⁶ But godliness with contentment is great gain. ⁷ For we brought nothing into the world, and we can take nothing out of it. ⁸ But if we have food and clothing, we will be content with that. ⁹ Those who want to get rich fall into temptation and a trap and into many foolish and harmful desires that plunge people into ruin and destruction. ¹⁰ For the love of money is a root of all kinds of evil. Some people, eager for money, have wandered from the faith and pierced themselves with many griefs. ¹¹ But you, man of God, flee from all this, and pursue righteousness, godliness, faith, love, endurance and gentleness... ¹⁷ Command those who are rich in this present world not to be arrogant nor to put their hope in wealth, which is so uncertain, but to put their hope in God, who richly provides us with everything for our enjoyment. ¹⁸ Command them to do good, to be rich in good deeds, and to be generous and willing to share. ¹⁹ In this way they will lay up treasure for themselves as a firm foundation for the coming age, so that they may take hold of the life that is truly life.

Psalm 49:12-20

¹² People, despite their wealth, do not endure; they are like the beasts that perish.

¹³ This is the fate of those who trust in themselves, and of their followers, who approve their sayings.

¹⁴ They are like sheep and are destined to die; death will be their shepherd (but the upright will prevail over them in the morning).

Their forms will decay in the grave, far from their princely mansions.

¹⁵ But God will redeem me from the realm of the dead; he will surely take me to himself.

¹⁶ Do not be overawed when others grow rich, when the splendor of their houses increases;

¹⁷ for they will take nothing with them when they die, their splendor will not descend with them.

¹⁸ Though while they live they count themselves blessed—and people praise you when you prosper—

¹⁹ they will join those who have gone before them, who will never again see the light of life.

²⁰ People who have wealth but lack understanding are like the beasts that perish.

All: Thanks be to God.

All: Glory to you, Lord Christ.

SCRIPTURE READINGS FOR TODAY

The Gospel—Luke 16:19-31

¹⁹ “There was a rich man who was dressed in purple and fine linen and lived in luxury every day. ²⁰ At his gate was laid a beggar named Lazarus, covered with sores ²¹ and longing to eat what fell from the rich man’s table. Even the dogs came and licked his sores. ²² “The time came when the beggar died and the angels carried him to Abraham’s side. The rich man also died and was buried. ²³ In Hades, where he was in torment, he looked up and saw Abraham far away, with Lazarus by his side. ²⁴ So he called to him, ‘Father Abraham, have pity on me and send Lazarus to dip the tip of his finger in water and cool my tongue, because I am in agony in this fire.’ ²⁵ “But Abraham replied, ‘Son, remember that in your lifetime you received your good things, while Lazarus received bad things, but now he is comforted here and you are in agony. ²⁶ And besides all this, between us and you a great chasm has been set in place, so that those who want to go from here to you cannot, nor can anyone cross over from there to us.’ ²⁷ “He answered, ‘Then I beg you, father, send Lazarus to my family, ²⁸ for I have five brothers. Let him warn them, so that they will not also come to this place of torment.’ ²⁹ “Abraham replied, ‘They have Moses and the Prophets; let them listen to them.’ ³⁰ “‘No, father Abraham,’ he said, ‘but if someone from the dead goes to them, they will repent.’ ³¹ “He said to him, ‘If they do not listen to Moses and the Prophets, they will not be convinced even if someone rises from the dead.’”

Reader: The Gospel of the Lord.

All: Praise to you, Lord Christ.

The flowers on the altar are given to the Glory of God and in loving memory of Cliff Nance by his wife, France Nance and by the Lee family in celebration of their new church family and all of God’s blessings in our lives

Many thanks to Mike Butler and Bob Lawson for organizing and rebuilding a bridge on the back side of the ASAC property. Wood, tools, labor, skill and hearts go into a maintenance project like this. In fact, Mike even arranged for a community friend to help—a valuable outreach too! Thank you to all those involved! Your work is truly appreciated!
